CONCERTS

Due to the ongoing restrictions related to the Covid-19 pandemic, Champs Hill will not be holding a Summer 2021 concert season. Hopefully, we will be throwing our doors open for a full Autumn season. As a 'taster' of things to come, we warmly welcome you to visit Champs Hill virtually this Summer with two streamed concerts which you can watch safely from your own homes.

4 Girls 4 Harps

Harriet Adie

Eleanor Turner

Keziah Thomas

Elizabeth Scolah

Streaming Monday 21st June – Sunday 27th June

Celebrating their 21st anniversary as a group, 4 Girls 4 Harps are no strangers to Champs Hill. The quartet will again delight our audience with a selection of dances from Rimsky-Korsakov, Prokofiev, Piazzolla, Borodin and others.

There is no charge for this streamed concert.

Please book your ticket(s) in the usual way.

Michael Collins - Clarinet

Michael McHale - Piano

Streaming Monday 5th July - Sunday 11th July

We warmly welcome a return visit by two distinguished musicians who will give us a programme of works for clarinet and piano to include Weber's Grand Duo concertante five Finzi bagatelles and works by Poulenc and Horowitz. Each individually renowned for their virtuosity, both artists regularly collaborate together.

There is no charge for this streamed concert.

Please book your ticket(s) in the usual way.

EVENTS

Art Open Afternoon

Monday 21st June

We are delighted to be exhibiting a private collection of 19th Century Dutch paintings, and invite you to come and view this large selection of exquisite works, before the collection is disbursed later on in the year.

Please come along to Champs Hill at some point during the opening hours and view the 19th Century Dutch Romantic Painting Exhibition – the Seasons, the City and the Seas.

Weather permitting, please do also enjoy a walk around the gardens and view the sculptures.

2.00pm – 4.00pm

Tea/Coffee available between 2.00pm and 3.30pm.

Suggested donation £8 per ticket.
